SPEAKER PROFILE

Elisabetta Trezzani

PARTNER, RENZO PIANO BUILDING WORKSHOP

FRIDAY, 9:15 AM

Born in 1968, Elisabetta Trezzani studied architecture at the Politecnico in Milan, graduating in 1994. She joined RPBW in Genoa in 1998 working initially on the design of the Aurora Place Buildings in Sydney. She was subsequently involved in the design and construction of the addition to the High Museum in Atlanta, where she ran the site office until the project's completion in 2005.

On returning to Genoa, she was made an Associate and a Partner in 2011. Together with Mark Carroll, she led the teams working on the new Whitney Museum of American Art in New York and the Harvard Art Museums in Cambridge. She also worked on the RPBW exhibitions in Rome, Atlanta, Milan and New York.

She is currently working on the SoHo residential tower project in New York, the 555 Howard Street tower project in San Francisco, and the Academy Museum of Motion Pictures in Los Angeles, a residential tower and hotel in 555 Howard Street, San Francisco and Whittle School & Studios in Shenzhen, China and in Washington D.C., USA.

Elisabetta was appointed member of the board in 2014.
